

I recommend against BPL unless it can be proved that BPL will not interfere with existing licensed radio users including amateur radio, and emergency services. There is a concern that BPL will raise the noise floor for all radio services and indeed interfere and block communications including emergency communications in the HF through 2 meter bands. If it creates interference, it should be scrapped in the USA.

Richard Kelly